

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

★★★★

SOME DANDIES—Three-week-old Rhode Island Red pullets in the brooder house of Dudley Howard of Armstrong, B.C. Mr. Howard has an approved flock and sells hatching eggs.

THIS POPENKILL ABERDEEN PONY, belonging to Marshall Miller of Brome Centre, Que., farmer and purebred livestock man, is an American-bred son of Marshall's champion used in the Miller herd successfully.

HONORED AT CONVOCATION—Honored at the University of British Columbia's recent Convocation were, left to right, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, J. G. Taggart, Ottawa; Dean F. M. Chenevix, U.B.C., and vice-principal W. H. Britain, of Macdonald College, P.Q. They received the degree of Doctor of Science (honoris causa).

THE GESE BOON FOR WEEDERS—In addition to being able to live and grow at low cost on grass, geese are being credited with the additional ability of being expert weeders and grass-pullers for clearing the strawberry patch.

KING AND QUEEN ATTEND WEDDING AT WINDSOR—King George and Queen Elizabeth are shown as they leave St. George's church, Windsor, London, Eng., after attending the wedding of Caroline Lascelles, 26-year-old daughter of the King's private secretary, Sir Alan Lascelles, and Anthony Lytton, son of Oliver Lytton, M.P. The princesses were seated, Margaret was still on her knees in Italy and Elizabeth was in Scotland.—S.N.S. photo.

IT IS A FREED MOMENT when a farmer gets delivery of an automatic pressure tank and power pumping unit, which completes his home water system.

EARLY BLOOMERS—Left: One of the early bloomers in spring in Pithia, Indiana, near decorating this rock terrace. Right: The bright spots of this terrace in Sweet Alysium, a popular low-growing plant.

FAILED TO SAVE TWO FROM DROWNING—Mrs. Ruby McCreary, Toronto, Ont., 41-year-old widow and mother of two children, made three attempts to rescue two companions who were clinging to an overturned canoe in Bay Lake Tanganyika, then she collapsed exhausted on the rocky shore of a small island, where she heard their cries for help fade into the night. Believed drowned when they could no longer cling to the canoe are Mrs. Lloyd Harris, 34, of Haldimand, Ont., mother of two children, and Stanley Eason, father of three and manager of Ashby Gold Mine at South Porcupine, Ont. Provincial police found the overturned canoe four miles from Bay Lake Tanganyika and 17 miles from Tanganyika.—S.N.S. photo.

NEWFOUNDLAND RECEIVES INCREASE IN NEW OLD AGE PENSION—Signing of contract by which Newfoundland will share in Canada's old age pension scheme, in which an estimated 110,000 people will share, is carried out by Hon. G. Bradley, (left), Hon. Paul Martin and Premier J. Brudeney. Pension was formerly $6 a month. Prior to union, 1,000 people were to receive the old age pension. New age limit has been lowered to 70 and pensions upped to $24 a month.—S.N.S. photo.

FASHION'S ATTRACTION—Fashions attracted nearly as much attention as the horses at the opening of Woodhouse race track, Toronto, as the ladies, who were popular among the ladies as can be seen by this fine display. Above, Cecil Chubb wears silver-blue mink; Dorothy Fleming, has mink finger-length jacket; Rona, such displays "told" mink coat; Mary Graham shows off three-quarter length mink coat. All these four models were from Toronto.—S.N.S. photo.

HAYWORTH WEDDING ATTRACTS WIDESPREAD PUBLICITY—The wedding of Rita Hayworth, movie actress, and wealthy Prince Aly Khan which took place at Cannes, France, attracted widespread publicity despite the efforts of Prince Aly Khan's wedding to be kept quiet. Protection is sought by Rebecca Welles, four, photographer covered event, despite Aly's efforts to discourage publicity. Rita Hayworth-Aly Khan wedding was also of interest to Cannes residents. Two residents discuss latest developments on street.—S.N.S. photo.

CL 191A

